Trailer Mounted Series

RMT-1000 Asphalt Distributor

The Rosco 1,000-gallon road maintenance trailer (RMT) is a versatile asphalt distributor providing a cost-effective and heavy-duty unit for contractors and government agencies.

The RMT features a 12-foot, fully circulating spraybar and individual nozzle quick-disconnect to allow the operator to control spray width in 4-inch increments. The operator controls gallons-per-minute, rotary valve control and spraybar on/off/bar circulate from the towing vehicle via a wired control box.

The RMT gives operators truck-mounted distributor ease of operation and productivity in a trailer-mounted unit.

In-cab controller box controls gallons-per-minute, rotary valves, and spraybar on/off/bar circulate from the towing vehicle.
